I think I speak on behalf of millions of soccer (football) fans across North America when I say there was quite a bit of suffering this week. Within just a few days, the three host nations of the upcoming World Cup—the United States, Mexico, and Canada—all suffered heartbreaking eliminations. Soccer fans are passionate, and when your team loses, especially in dramatic fashion, it hurts.

Perhaps that shouldn't surprise us. The English word 'passion' comes from the Latin 'passio', meaning "suffering." The things we love most often have the greatest capacity to bring us joy—and, at times, disappointment. Yet St. Paul reminds us in today's letter to the Romans: "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us."

As a lifelong soccer player and fan, I always look forward to the World Cup every four years. When I was young, I dreamed of one day playing in the World Cup myself. As the years have gone by, I've come to realize that this dream is not the one God had in store for me—and that's okay. The Lord gives each of us the gifts we need for the vocation He has prepared for us. Since He is the one who gave us those gifts, He also places us in situations where they can be used for His glory and for the sanctification of His people.

But in order to recognize those gifts, we must first be open to what the Lord is asking of us. Jesus tells us in today's Gospel, "Whoever has ears ought to hear." We should strive to become the "rich soil" that receives God's word and bears fruit a hundred, sixty, or thirtyfold. God has blessed each and every one of us with unique gifts, but we must remain attentive to the Holy Spirit if we are to discover how He is calling us to use them.

Perhaps the best place to begin is with one simple prayer: "Lord, how can I serve You?" When asked with sincerity and an open heart, that question can lead us to places we never imagined. I know this from my own life. Through God's grace, asking that very question has led me to where I am today: discerning and preparing for the priesthood. May we never be discouraged by the sufferings and disappointments of this life, but instead keep our eyes fixed on the greater glory that God desires to reveal through our faithful "yes" to Him.

-Joshua Kong

Creo que hablo en nombre de millones de aficionados al fútbol en Norteamérica cuando digo que esta semana hubo bastante sufrimiento. En tan solo unos días, las tres naciones anfitrionas de la Copa Mundial —Estados Unidos, México y Canadá— sufrieron dolorosas eliminaciones. Los aficionados al fútbol son muy apasionados y, cuando pierde su equipo, especialmente de una manera tan dramática, duele.

Quizás esto no debería sorprendernos. La palabra 'pasión' proviene del latín 'passio', que significa 'sufrimiento.' Aquello que más amamos suele tener la mayor capacidad de llenarnos de alegría, pero también, en ocasiones, de decepción. Sin embargo, san Pablo nos recuerda en la lectura de hoy de la carta a los Romanos: "Considero que los sufrimientos del tiempo presente no son nada en comparación con la gloria que un día se manifestará en nosotros."

Como alguien que ha jugado fútbol toda su vida y que sigue siendo un apasionado de este deporte, siempre espero con entusiasmo la llegada de la Copa Mundial cada cuatro años. Cuando era niño, soñaba con que algún día yo mismo jugaría en un Mundial. Con el paso de los años, he llegado a comprender que ese no era el sueño que Dios tenía preparado para mí, y eso está bien. El Señor concede a cada uno de nosotros los dones que necesitamos para la vocación a la que nos ha llamado. Y puesto que Él mismo nos ha dado esos dones, también nos coloca en las circunstancias donde podemos utilizarlos para su mayor gloria y para la santificación de su pueblo.

Pero, para reconocer esos dones, primero debemos estar abiertos a lo que el Señor nos está pidiendo. Jesús nos dice en el Evangelio de hoy: "El que tenga oídos para oír, que oiga." Debemos esforzarnos por ser esa 'tierra buena' que recibe la Palabra de Dios y da fruto al ciento, al sesenta o al treinta por uno. Dios ha bendecido a cada uno de nosotros con dones únicos, pero debemos permanecer atentos al Espíritu Santo para descubrir cómo nos llama a ponerlos al servicio de los demás.

Quizás el mejor lugar para comenzar sea con una sencilla oración: "Señor, ¿cómo puedo servirte?" Cuando hacemos esta pregunta con sinceridad y con un corazón abierto, el Señor puede llevarnos a lugares que jamás habríamos imaginado. Lo sé por experiencia propia. Por la gracia de Dios, hacerme esa misma pregunta me ha conducido hasta donde me encuentro hoy: discerniendo y preparándome para el sacerdocio. Que nunca nos desanimemos por los sufrimientos y las decepciones de esta vida, sino que mantengamos la mirada fija en la gloria mucho mayor que Dios desea revelar a través de nuestro fiel "sí" a su voluntad.
