The Baptism of the Lord

The origin and foundation of Christian Baptism is Jesus. Before starting his public ministry, Jesus submitted himself to the baptism given by John the Baptist. The waters did not purify him; he cleansed the waters. “He comes to sanctify the Jordan for our sake . . . to begin a new creation through the Spirit and water” (St. Gregory Nazianzen, Liturgy of the Hours, I, 634). Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will. Jesus did not need to be baptized because he was totally faithful to the will of his Father and free from sin. However, he wanted to show his solidarity with human beings in order to reconcile them to the Father. By commanding his disciples to baptize all nations, he established the means by which people would die to sin—Original and actual—and begin to live a new life with God. [USCCB-Catholic Current]

El Bautismo del Señor

El origen y la fundación del bautismo Cristiano es Jesús. Antes de empezar su ministerio publico, Jesús se entrego al bautismo dado por Juan el Bautista. Las aguas no lo purificaron, él limpio las aguas. El vino a santificar el Jordan para nuestro beneficio.... para empezar una nueva creación a través del espíritu y el agua. La inmersión de Jesús en el agua es una señal para todos los seres humanos, es la necesidad de morir así mismos para hacer la voluntad de Dios. Jesús no necesitaba ser bautizado porque él era totalmente fiel a la voluntad de su Padre, y libre de pecado. Sin embargo, el quería mostrar su solidaridad a los seres humanos con el fin de reconciliarlos con el Padre. Al ordenar a sus discípulos que bautizen a todas las naciones, estableció los medios por los cuales las personas morirían al pecado—Original y Actual— comenzando a vivir una nueva vida con Dios. [USCCB-Catholic Current]

Guardian Angels

Tradition says that everyone has a guardian angel. Since 1608, the Church has celebrated a feast day for guardian angels, initiated by Pope Paul V (who was pope from 1605-1621). Originally, it was celebrated on September 27, but Pope Clement X (who was pope from 1670-1676) changed the date to October 2.

Ángeles Guardianes

Cuenta la tradición que cada uno tiene un ángel guardián. Desde 1608, la Iglesia ha celebrado un día de fiesta para los ángeles guardianes, iniciado por el Papa Pablo V (quien fue papa desde 1605 hasta 1621). Originalmente, fue celebrada el 27 de Septiembre, pero el Papa Clemente X (quien fue papa desde 1670 hasta 1676) cambio la fecha para el 2 de Octubre.
