MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR / MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

If we acknowledge that everything we are, have, own, and use is a gift from God, then Jesus' injunction to the Twelve applies to us as well: "The gift you have received, give as a gift" (Mt 10:8). When we share generously, we do just that. Generous sharing means that we do not give only to fill in a gap, to replenish something that is used up, or to provide for in an emergency. Likewise, it means that we do not give to feel good about giving. Rather, generous sharing means that we give—we share what we have—because it is the right thing to do. When we share generously, we practice the virtue of justice, realizing that giving comes

Si admitimos que todo lo que somos, tenemos, poseemos y usamos es un regalo de Dios, entonces el mandato de Jesús a los DOCE, aplica también a nosotros: "El regalo que ustedes han recibido, denlo como un regalo" (Mt 10:8). Cuando compartimos generosamente, hacemos exactamente eso. Compartir generosamente significa que no damos solamente para cubrir la rajadura o el boquete, o para reemplazar algo que ya se usó, o para proveer en una emergencia. Igualmente, quiere decir que no estamos dando por sentirnos bien por haber dado, sino que al dar generosamente, estamos compartiendo lo que tenemos porque es lo from the conviction that we share what we have because it all belongs to God and is really his gift to us to give as a gift.

Said another way, generous sharing is about realizing that from God's fullness we have all received (Jn 1:16). So we share of that fullness—whatever that may mean for us (be it the widow's two cents or the billionaire's $2 billion). Generous sharing is not about equal gifts but equal sacrifice. In other words, not everyone can give the same amount, but everyone can sacrifice equally.

correcto. Cuando compartimos generosamente, practicamos la virtud de justicia, realizando que DAR viene de la convicción de que damos lo que tenemos porque todo pertenece a Dios y es realmente Su regalo a nosotros para que lo demos como regalo a otros.

Dicho de otra manera, compartir generosamente es realizar que de la plenitud de Dios, todos hemos recibido (Jn 1:16). De hecho, todos compartimos de esa plenitud — sea lo que sea que signifique para nosotros (ya sean los dos centavos de la mujer viuda o los dos billones del billonario). Compartir generosamente no significa regalos iguales sino sacrificio igual. En otras palabras, no todos pueden dar la misma cantidad, pero todos pueden sacrificarse de igual manera.

Padre Juan
