STATEMENT FROM BISHOP COTTA ON IMMIGRATION POLICY DECLARACIÓN DEL OBISPO COTTA SOBRE LAS POLIZAS DE INMIGRACIÓN

“Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Our faith calls us to stand in solidarity with those who are suffering. As threats of mass deportations grow, we recognize the deep fear and uncertainty this creates for immigrant families in our communities. These families are our neighbors, our classmates, and our friends. They are integral to the fabric of our society and to the life of our Church.

The Catholic Church stands firmly with immigrant families. Pope Francis has reminded us, “Migrants are not numbers; they are people who bring with them their own history, culture, and aspirations.

“Estimados hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, Nuestra fe nos llama a estar en solidaridad con aquellos que están sufriendo. A medida que crecen las amenazas de deportaciones masivas, reconocemos el profundo miedo e incertidumbre que esto genera en las familias inmigrantes de nuestras comunidades. Estas familias son nuestros vecinos, nuestros compañeros de clase y nuestros amigos. Son una parte integral del tejido de nuestra sociedad y de la vida de nuestra Iglesia.

They must be treated as such” (Message for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, 2019). As we journey through this Jubilee Year, themed “Pilgrims of Hope,” we are called to be signs of hope for our brothers and sisters in need, offering support and reassurance to those who feel most vulnerable, trusting in God’s promise of justice and peace.

We invite parishioners, students, and parents to share these resources and stand with immigrant families in prayer. Let us be visible signs of Christ’s love, bringing hope to those who are afraid and working together to ensure that all members of our community are treated with dignity, mercy, and respect.”

La Iglesia Católica está firmemente al lado de las familias inmigrantes. El Papa Francisco nos recuerda: “Los migrantes no son números; son personas que llevan consigo su propia historia, cultura y aspiraciones.

Deben ser tratados como tales” (Mensaje para la Jornada Mundial del Migrante y del Refugiado, 2019). En este Año Jubilar, con el lema “Peregrinos de la Esperanza”, estamos llamados a ser signos de esperanza para nuestros hermanos y hermanas necesitados, brindando apoyo y consuelo a quienes se sienten más vulnerables, confiando en la promesa de justicia y paz de Dios.

Invitamos a los feligreses, estudiantes y padres a compartir estos recursos y a mantenerse en oración con las familias inmigrantes. Seamos signos visibles del amor de Cristo, trabajando juntos para garantizar que todos los miembros de nuestra comunidad sean tratados con dignidad, misericordia, y respeto.”
