MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR / MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

Dear brothers and sisters,

The Cathedral of the Annunciation continues to prepare for the celebration of the feast of liturgical feasts, Easter. But in order to get there, we must first go through the passion and death of Jesus on the cross.

When Jesus is preparing to celebrate Easter, some foreigners show up and want to see him. At the end of Lent, we can ask ourselves if this time has helped

Queridos Hermanos y hermanas,

La Catedral de la Anunciación continúa preparándose para la celebración de la fiesta de fiestas litúrgicas, la Pascua. Pero tengamos presente que para llegar a ella hay que pasar primero por la pasión y muerte de Jesús en la cruz.

Cuando Jesús se dispone a celebrar la Pascua, se presentan unos extranjeros que quieren verle. Al final de la cuaresma podemos preguntarnos si este tiempo nos us to have a stronger desire to know the Lord, if all the penitential practices of this time have moved us to a deeper affection. To see it fully, it is necessary to contemplate Jesus nailed to the cross. It is in his passion and death where he is best known.

Every Friday of Lent, our parish has provided you with four times to pray and accompany Jesus on his Via Dolorosa. What has happened these Fridays in your life as you contemplate the suffering of Jesus? Have you joined Him? With the prayer of the Stations of the Cross, we not only contemplate the mysteries of pain in his life, but also think of this beautiful act of piety which offers us the opportunity to ask ourselves if we truly love God or only seek him with the interest of his goods.

Let us not forget that the glory we seek from God in the eternal Easter is the glory that begins in the profession of our faith in a life that knows how to go through the painful way, offering and uniting ourselves to Him for Love. As Pope Benedict told us: "Faith is tested before the cross and in it, our love is purified."

Let us live this season of Lent intensely, so that we may experience Easter.

Happy and holy week to all.

Fr. Hamilton Suarez

ha servido para tener un deseo más firme de conocer al Señor, si todas las prácticas penitenciales de este tiempo nos han movido a un afecto más profundo. Para verlo en plenitud, es necesario contemplar a Jesús clavado en la cruz. Es en su pasión y muerte donde mejor se le conoce.

Cada viernes de cuaresma, nuestra parroquia te ha proporcionado cuatro oportunidades para rezar y acompañar a Jesús en su vía dolorosa. ¿Qué ha sucedido estos viernes en tu vida al contemplar el sufrimiento de Jesús? ¿Te has unido a Él?. Con el rezo del viacrucis, no sólo contemplamos los misterios de dolor de la vida de Jesús, sino que este bello acto de piedad nos ofrece también la oportunidad de preguntarnos si verdaderamente amamos a Dios o sólo le buscamos con el interés de sus bienes.

No olvidemos que la gloria que buscamos de Dios en la Pascua eterna es la gloria que comienza en la profesión de nuestra fe, en una vida que sabe pasar por la vía dolorosa, ofreciendo y uniéndonos a Él por Amor. Como nos dijo el Papa Benedicto: "La fe se pone a prueba ante la cruz y en ella, nuestro amor es purificado".

Vivamos intensamente este tiempo de Cuaresma para poder tener la experiencia de la Pascua.

Feliz y santa semana para todos.

Padre Hamilton Suarez
