MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR / MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

I wrote in last week's message: "While our baptism into the Paschal Mystery of the Lord particularizes for each of us the salvation Jesus won for us on the cross, we are called to affirm that salvation to actually get to heaven. In other words, how we live on this side of death plays an important part in where we will live on the other side."

St. Paul continues this theme in his first letter to the Corinthians today by warning his listeners that complacency can be deadly. We can easily be lulled into a sense of safety and comfort when it comes to God's salvation in Christ Jesus. But the apostle makes the distinction of being chosen—which we have been in our initiation into Christ and his Paschal Mystery—and so assured of salvation that we have nothing to fear and can do whatever we please. La semana pasada escribí en mi mensaje: "Mientras que nuestro bautismo en el Misterio Pascual del Señor particulariza para cada uno de nosotros la salvación que Jesús nos ganó en la cruz, somos llamados a afirmar esa salvación para realmente llegar al cielo. En otras palabras, cómo vivimos en este lado de la muerte, juega un papel importante en dónde nos alinearemos en el otro lado."

San Pablo continúa este tema en su primera carta a los Corintios hoy, advirtiéndoles que la complacencia puede ser mortal. Fácilmente podemos dejarnos llevar por una sensación de seguridad y comodidad cuando se trata de la salvación de Dios en Jesucristo. Pero lo opuesto hace la distinción de ser elegidos—que lo hemos sido en nuestra iniciación en Cristo y su Misterio Pascual—y tan seguros de la salvación que no tenemos temor a nada y podemos hacer cualquier cosa que nos plazca. San Pablo no se anda

This Thursday marks the midpoint of our Lenten retreat. Time remains before the Paschal Triduum to examine our lives, repent of our sins, and return to the Lord, lest we find ourselves like the fig tree in Jesus' parable today.

Este próximo Jueves marca el punto medio de nuestro retiro de Cuaresma. Todavía hay tiempo antes del Triduo Pascual para examinar nuestras vidas, arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados, y regresar al Señor, no sea que nos encontremos hoy, como la higuera de la parábola de Jesús.

Mass for the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord and Potluck Celebration

Celebrate Our Parish's Patroness: March 25

This Friday, March 25, is the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord and patronal solemnity of our parish. A bilingual Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral at 5:30 p.m. Then join us after Mass in the Parish Center for a potluck celebration and raffle.

To help us plan, families are encouraged to register online at <https://annunciationstockton.org> or after Masses this weekend outside the main entrance to the church.

Because the solemnity of the Annunciation falls on a Friday this year, the obligation to abstain from meat is lifted (c. 1251).

Misa por la Solemnidad de la Anunciación del Señor y Celebración Potluck

Celebremos a la Patrona de Nuestra Parroquia el 25 de Marzo

Este Viernes, 25 de Marzo, es la Solemnidad de la Anunciación del Señor y solemnidad patronal de nuestra parroquia. Una Misa bilingüe será celebrada en la Catedral a las 5:30 p.m. Sírvase acompañarnos, después de la Misa, en una celebración con potluck y rifa que tendremos en el Centro Pastoral.

Para ayudarnos a planificar, pedimos a las familias que se registren en línea en <https://annunciationstockton.org>, o después de las Misas este fin de semana, afuera de la entrada principal a nuestra Iglesia.

Debido a que la solemnidad de la Anunciación cae en Viernes este año, la obligación de abstinencia de carne será perdonada (c. 1251).
