MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR / MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

St. Luke records the arrival of Jesus in Jerusalem as the culmination of his ministry (begun in chapter 9 of the Gospel) and the place not only of his passion and death but also his resurrection.

In listening to and reflecting on the Passion according to St. Luke today and this week, attend to many of the themes woven throughout the Gospel and brought to their climax here: Jesus as teacher; his concern and care for women; the confession of faith by Gentiles (as seen in the exclamation of the centurion); and the words of forgiveness and salvation of Jesus.

Luke tells us the rulers sneered at Jesus on the cross: “He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God.” Yet it is

San Lucas registra la llegada de Jesús a Jerusalén como la culminación de su ministerio (comenzado en el capítulo 9 del Evangelio) y el lugar, no sólo de su pasión y muerte, sino también de su resurrección.

Al escuchar y reflexionar sobre la Pasión, de acuerdo con San Lucas, hoy y esta semana, atiende a muchos de los temas tejidos a lo largo del Evangelio y llevados aquí a su climax: Jesús como maestro, su preocupación y cuidado por las mujeres, la confesión de fe de los Gentiles (como se ve en la exclamación del centurión); y las palabras de perdón y salvación de Jesús.

Lucas nos dice que los gobernantes se burlaron de Jesús en la cruz. “Él salvó a otros, que se salve a sí mismo si es el elegido. El Cristo de Dios.” Sin embargo, es precisely by not saving himself that Jesus saves us, for as St. Paul reminded the Philipians, Jesus “emptied himself” and “humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross” (Phil 2:6-11).

We know, of course, that death is not the end—not for Jesus and not for us. When our times does come, may each of us hear the Lord’s words to the repentant thief: “Today you will be with me in Paradise.”

precisamente al no sacrificarse a si mismo que Jesús nos salva, ya que , como recordaba San Pablo a los Filipenses, Jesús “se despojó de sí mismo” y “se humilló a sí mismo, haciéndose obediente hasta la muerte, aún muerte en la cruz” (Phil 2:6-11).

Nosotros sabemos, por supuesto, que la muerte no es el fin—no para Jesús y no para nosotros. Cuando llegue nuestro momento, que cada uno de nosotros escuche las palabras del Señor al ladrón arrepentido: “Hoy estarás conmigo en el Paraíso.”

Celebrating the Paschal Triduum

The Three Days, this Easter Triduum, is the center, the core of the year for Christians. These are days to save and to savor.

Adults in the community are invited to plan ahead so that the whole time from Thursday night until the Easter Vigil is free of social engagements, free even of work, free of entertainment, free of meals except for the simplest nourishment. We are asked to fast during Good Friday and to continue fasting, if possible, all through Holy Saturday as strictly as we can, so that we come hungry and full of excitement to the Easter Vigil. We make Good Friday and Holy Saturday free for prayer and reflection and preparation and silence. The Church is getting ready.

Whether you are young or old, currently active in the parish or not, please set these days aside. All of us should know that our presence for the liturgies is not just by invitation. We are all needed here. All of us need this whole community together on its greatest days.

On these three days, we gather a number of times with each other. Together we hear some of the Church's most beautiful prayers and scriptures, and we make some of our finest music. Please look closely at the parish schedule and make plans to take part in the various liturgies and other gatherings of Holy Thursday night, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Above all, come on Saturday night for the Vigil.

Celebrando el Triduo Pascual

Los Tres Días, este Triduo Pascual, son el centro, el núcleo del año para los Cristianos. Estos son días para guardar y para saborear.

Se invita a los adultos de la comunidad a planificar con anticipación para que todo el tiempo desde Jueves por la noche hasta la Vigilia de Pascua sea libre de compromisos sociales, libre de trabajo, libre de entretenimiento, libre de comidas excepto por el alimento más simple. Se nos pide ayunar durante el Viernes Santo y continuar el ayuno, si es posible, hasta el Sábado Santo tan estrictamente como podamos, para que vengamos hambrientos y llenos de emoción a la Vigilia Pascual. Hacemos que el Viernes Santo y el Sábado Santo sean libres para la oración, la reflexión, la preparación y el silencio. La Iglesia se está preparando.

Si usted es joven o viejo, actualmente activo en la parroquia o no, por favor reserve estos días. Todos deberíamos saber que nuestra presencia para las liturgias no son sólo por invitación. Todos somos necesarios aquí. Todos necesitamos a esta comunidad unida en sus mejores días.

En estos tres días, nos reunimos varias veces entre nosotros. Juntos escuchamos unas de las oraciones y escrituras más bellas de la Iglesia, y hacemos algo de nuestra mejor música. Por favor vean detenidamente el horario de la Parroquia y hagan planes para participar en las diversas liturgias y otras reuniones de la noche del Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y Sábado Santo. Sobre todo, vengan el Sábado por la noche para la Vigilia.
