published as Diary: Divine Mercy in My Soul, she recorded Christ’s call for a special feast dedicated to Divine Mercy—a day when souls would come to trust more fully in His love and receive abundant grace.

Today, Divine Mercy Sunday is a gentle yet powerful reminder that no soul is beyond the reach of God’s love. It calls each person to approach Christ with trust, to receive His forgiveness with humility, and to become instruments of His mercy in the world—echoing the simple yet profound prayer: “Jesus, I trust in You.”

destacaban su profundo deseo de derramar su misericordia sobre el mundo. En sus escritos, posteriormente publicados como Diario: La Divina Misericordia en mi alma, dejó constancia del llamado de Cristo a establecer una fiesta especial dedicada a la Divina Misericordia, un día en que las almas confiarían más plenamente en su amor y recibirían abundantes gracias.

Hoy, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia es un recordatorio suave pero poderoso de que ninguna alma está fuera del alcance del amor de Dios. Invita a cada persona a acercarse a Cristo con confianza, a recibir su perdón con humildad y a convertirse en instrumento de su misericordia en el mundo, haciendo eco de la oración sencilla pero profunda: “Jesús, en Ti confío”.

Brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we continue to celebrate the Easter season, we are reminded of Jesus' victory of life over death and light over darkness. Let us never forget that the Resurrection of Jesus Christ is indeed the foundation of our hope and the true source of peace.

Even in this season of hope, we find our hearts are heavy, and we must not close our eyes as we witness ongoing violence and suffering in the Middle East and beyond. Living in fear and mourning the loss of loved ones, many across the world long for stability and peace.

"Peace be with you." A simple yet profound greeting Jesus used when revealing Himself to His disciples, words we ourselves hear and repeat in every Mass. Despite its simplicity, this message is a powerful reminder of our mission, as Christians, to be instruments of peace in the world.

We join our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, in his appeals for an end to the violence and war plaguing our world. In a recent address Pope Leo XIV called for, "all people of goodwill to always search for peace and to reject war." He has reminded the world that lasting peace cannot be achieved through force, rather, we must encounter our neighbors with mutual respect, and a sincere commitment to the common good.

To truly proclaim Christ's victory over death, we must not be indifferent to the suffering in the world. This Easter season, let us remember that to be pro-life is to have respect and reverence for all human life. Let us cast aside our divisions and not allow hatred or indifference to take root in our hearts. I encourage all the faithful in our diocese to: - Pray for an end to all wars - Reject language that fuels division - Promote understanding and uphold the dignity of every person - Live the mission of the Church in your daily lives

May the light of the Risen Christ be a beacon for world leaders, leading them to find the wisdom and courage to comfort those in despair, protect the vulnerable, and inspire all people to seek justice and peace on Earth. I entrust these intentions to Christ's Divine Mercy and the prayers of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

In the Peace of Christ,
Bishop Myron J. Cotta

Hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Mientras continuamos celebrando la temporada de Pascua, recordemos la victoria de Jesús de la vida sobre la muerte y la luz sobre la oscuridad. Nunca olvidemos que la Resurrección de Jesucristo es verdaderamente el fundamento de nuestra esperanza y la fuente auténtica de la paz.

Incluso en este tiempo de esperanza, nuestros corazones están cargados de pesar, y no debemos cerrar los ojos ante la violencia y el sufrimiento continuos en Medio Oriente y más allá. Viviendo con miedo y lamentando la pérdida de seres queridos, muchos en todo el mundo anhelan estabilidad y paz.

"La paz sea con ustedes." Un saludo sencillo pero profundo que Jesús usó al revelarse a sus discípulos, palabras que nosotros mismos escuchamos y repetimos en cada Misa. A pesar de su simplicidad, este mensaje es un poderoso recordatorio de nuestra misión, como cristianos, de ser instrumentos de paz en el mundo.

Nos unimos a nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa León XIV, en sus llamados por el fin a la violencia y la guerra que azotan a nuestro mundo. En un mensaje reciente, el Papa León XIV llamó a "todas las personas de buena voluntad a buscar siempre la paz y a rechazar la guerra." Ha recordado al mundo que la paz duradera no puede lograrse por la fuerza, sino que debemos tratarnos con respeto mutuo y con un compromiso sincero al bien común.

Para proclamar verdaderamente la victoria de Cristo sobre la muerte, no debemos ser indiferentes al sufrimiento del mundo. En esta Pascua, recordemos que ser provida es tener respeto y reverencia por toda vida humana. Dejemos a un lado nuestras divisiones y no permitamos que el odio o la indiferencia echen raíces en nuestros corazones. Animo a todos los fieles de nuestra diócesis a: - Reza por el fin de todas las guerras - Rechazar el lenguaje que alimenta la división - Promover la comprensión y defender la dignidad de cada persona - Vivid la misión de la Iglesia en su vida cotidiana

Que la luz de Cristo Resucitado sea un faro para los líderes mundiales, guiándolos a encontrar la sabiduría y el valor necesario para consolar a los que están desesperados, proteger a los más vulnerables e inspirar a todas las personas a buscar la justicia y la paz en la Tierra.

Confío estas intenciones a la Divina Misericordia de Cristo y a las oraciones del Inmaculado Corazón de María.

En la Paz de Cristo,
Obispo Myron J. Cotta
