MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR / MENSAJE DEL PÁRROCO

Dear brothers and sisters,

After having lived the strong liturgical times of Lent and Easter, in this ordinary time that we continue, the Church invites us to celebrate today the solemnity of the Holy Trinity: "One God, in the trinity of persons and in the unity from nature".

Let's start from this question, what is God like? Neither our understanding can comprehend this Queridos Hermanos y hermanas,

Después de haber vivido los tiempos litúrgicos fuertes de la Cuaresma y la Pascua, en este tiempo ordinario que continuamos, la Iglesia nos invita a celebrar hoy la solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad: "Un solo Dios, en la trinidad de personas y en la unidad de naturaleza".

Comencemos con esta pregunta, ¿Cómo es Dios? Ni mystery, nor our words can express it in all its greatness, but today's readings can help us live some aspects. As we contemplate his mystery, our gratitude for his love also grows.

Let's see how God himself has helped us to know Him:

The first aspect that is revealed to us is the surprise that God makes himself known to us. God's omnipotence is not opposed to his closeness.

Second, God has wanted to communicate intimately with us. We are baptized as today's gospel reminds us, in the name of the triune God. Through baptism we are born into divine life. God chooses us to introduce us to his divine life. The condition of baptized opens me to a relationship with God, as a son, and with others, whom I must love as Jesus has taught me. Thus, for example, Pope Francis pointed out: Am I a reflection of the Trinity in everyday life? Does the sign of the cross that I make every day remain a mere idle gesture or does it inspire my way of speaking, knowing, judging and forgiving?

Third, Benedict XVI said; "The strongest proof that we have been created in the image of the Trinity is this: Only love makes us happy, because we live in relationship and we live to love and be loved." This is why the mystery of the Trinity, although we do not totally understand it, illuminates our existence. The answer to our deepest longing is in Him. God is Love.

Let us then continue this journey together, moved by the action of the grace of the Holy Trinity. Let us seek to give Glory to the Father, imitating the life and virtues of the Son and allowing our lives to be governed entirely by the influence of the Holy Spirit, so that our life will always be praise and offering to God.

Happy and holy week to all.
Fr. Hamilton Suarez.

Viene de la página anterior:

nuestro entendimiento llega a comprender este misterio ni nuestras palabras a expresarlo en toda su grandeza, pero las lecturas de hoy nos pueden ayudar a vivir algunos aspectos. Al contemplar su misterio, también crece nuestro agradecimiento por su amor. Veamos como Dios mismo nos ha ayudado a conocerlo:

El primer aspecto que se nos revela es la sorpresa de que Dios se nos da a conocer. La omnipotencia de Dios no se opone a su cercanía.

Segundo, Dios ha querido comunicarse íntimamente con nosotros. Somos bautizados como recuerda el evangelio de hoy, en nombre de Dios uno y trino. Por el bautismo nacemos a la vida divina. Dios nos elige para introducirnos en su vida divina. La condición de bautizado me abre a una relación con Dios, como hijo, y con los demás, a los que debo amar como Jesús me ha enseñado. Así por ejemplo, señala el Papa Francisco: "¿Soy un reflejo de la Trinidad en la vida diaria? ¿Se queda la señal de la cruz que hago cada día en sólo un gesto ocioso o inspira mi manera de hablar, conocer, juzgar y perdonar?"

Tercero, dijo Benedicto XVI; "La prueba más fuerte de que hemos sido creados a imagen de la Trinidad es esta: Sólo el amor nos hace felices, porque vivimos en relación y vivimos para amar y ser amados". Por esto el misterio de la Trinidad, aunque no lo lleguemos a comprender, ilumina nuestra existencia. La respuesta a nuestro anhelo más profundo está en Él. Dios es Amor.

Continuemos entonces este caminar juntos, movidos por la acción de la gracia de la Santísima Trinidad. Busquemos dar Gloria al Padre, imitando la vida y las virtudes del Hijo y dejando gobernar enteramente nuestra vida por el influjo del santo Espíritu y así nuestra vida será siempre alabanza y ofrenda a Dios.

Feliz y santa semana para todos.
Padre Hamilton Suarez.
