Why The DATING Project?

The Dating Project is more than a film. This is a movement.

It is a movement to revive, reclaim, and restore dating. Dating can, and should be, a manifestation of the good, the true, and the beautiful – the universal human experience of ethics, logic, and aesthetics.

Half of America is single. The way people seek and find love has radically changed.

This curriculum guide has been developed to assist all those who restore a dating culture for young people. It will provide them with hope and the tools to find and develop strong, healthy relationships, while learning more about themselves and the society we live in.

THE DATING PROJECT
