Sacred Voices from Rome at the Cathedral of the Annunciation

For one evening only, experience the beauty of sacred music as a 40-member choir from Rome visits the Cathedral of the Annunciation during their first California tour.

These gifted singers represent some of the Church's most distinguished musical institutions and will perform masterpieces by Palestrina, Perosi, Bartolucci, and other great composers whose music has enriched papal liturgies in St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican.

Join us on Wednesday, August 26, 2026, at 6:30 p.m. for an unforgettable evening of prayer, beauty, and sacred music. Whether you are a lover of music, a member of a parish choir, or simply seeking inspiration, this is a rare opportunity to experience the living musical heritage of the Catholic Church.

Come and be uplifted by the sacred sounds of Rome. Your attendance helps preserve and support the mission of our Cathedral Church.

Annunciation's Ministry to the Homebound

Our Ministry to the Homebound brings the comfort of Christ through prayer, companionship, and Holy Communion to parishioners who are sick, elderly, or unable to attend Mass. If you or a loved one would benefit from a visit by a member of our Homebound Ministry, we invite you to contact the Parish House office. It would be our privilege to bring the Eucharist and the care of our parish community to those who are homebound.
