From the Parish House:

In case you missed the announcement last Sunday at Mass, Bishop Cotta has appointed Fr. Ramon Bejarano as the new pastor of the Cathedral.

Following the canon law of the church, we have six year terms as pastor. After the first term it is usually the choice of the priest if he wants to remain for a second six years. After the second term it is the Bishop's call. On the first of July I finished my third term. I've had the joy and privilege of being the pastor of Annunciation for eighteen years. And for that I am more than thankful.

And now - after 75 years as a parish community - it is a good time for a new beginning.

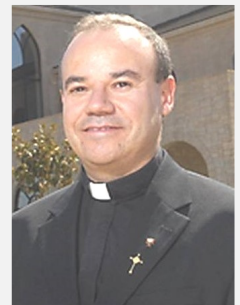

The Bishop did not free me from my job as vicar for priests for the diocese, so that will become my continuing, primary ministry. God willing, Fr Ramon's ministry with us will begin at the beginning of October.

Our new pastor - and I can say 'our' because I will continue to live in the neighborhood and the parish of Annunciation - comes to us from his assignment as pastor of St Stanislaus Church in Modesto. Fr. Ramon was born in Texas and raised in Chihuahua, México, the oldest child in the family, with three brothers and a sister. When he was 18 the family moved to Tracy. From there he entered the seminary and studied for our diocese. He was ordained to the priesthood on August 15, 1998. He served as an associate at St George Church in Stockton and Sacred Heart in Turlock, and then as the first pastor of Holy Family Church in Modesto, and since 2008 as the pastor of St Stanislaus.

The parish is receiving an experienced and good priest. This is a blessing for which I am thankful and extremely happy.

Please pray for all who are involved in this transition and new beginning, particularly the parish of St Stanislaus which will not at all be happy at their loss and our gain!

-Fr. John
