Missionary Guadalupanas of the Holy Spirit

On the weekend of August 17th and 18th, we will have a visit for this year's Missionary Cooperation Plan for the Diocese of Stockton. The Missionary Guadalupanas of the Holy Spirit have been assigned to our parish community to share their mission in the United States, Mexico, Dominican Republic and here in the Diocese of Stockton.

The origin of their congregation dates back to 1914 in Saltillo, Coahuila Mexico. They met a French priest, Fr. Felix de Jesus Rougier, MSpS in 1923 who was living in Morelia, Michoacán Mexico and he became their founding father. In 1930 they were approved by the Supreme Pontiff Paul VI as a Religious Community. The United States Bishops requested their assistance in 1964 and they expanded their work to the States and to this date work and live among the poor and marginalized, especially with immigrants and Afro-American communities.

Our donations towards the second collection makes a difference and impacts them directly. By donating we assist them in their ministry and missions. They greatly appreciate our prayers and generosity and are offering their prayers to Our Lady of Guadalupe to intercede for us, our loved ones and parish community.

Las Misioneras Guadalupanas del Espíritu Santo

El fin de semana del 17 y 18 de Agosto, tendremos la visita para el Plan Cooperativo Misionero de este año de la Diócesis de Stockton. Las Misioneras Guadalupanas del Espíritu Santo han sido asignadas a nuestra comunidad parroquial para compartirnos sobre su ministerio en los Estados Unidos, México, República Dominicana y en esta Diócesis de Stockton.

El origen de las Hermanas comienza en 1914 en Saltillo, Coahuila México. Conocieron un sacerdote Francés, Padre Félix de Jesús Rougier, MSpS en 1923 quien vivía en Morelia, Michoacán México. El Sumo Pontífice Pablo VI las aprobó como Comunidad Religiosa en el año 1930. En 1964 extendieron su trabajo a los Estados Unidos y siguen trabajando y viviendo en comunidades pobres y marginadas, la mayoría inmigrantes y afroamericanos. Nuestros donativos hacia la segunda colecta hacen una gran diferencia y las impacta directamente.

Al donar apoyamos su ministerio y misiones. Las Hermanas de ante mano agradecen sus oraciones y generosidad y están ofreciendo sus oraciones a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe por nosotros, nuestros seres queridos y comunidad parroquial.
