CELEBRATING THE GIFT OF MARRIAGE ~ CELEBRANDO EL DON DEL MATRIMONIO

Marriage is a beautiful vocation, a covenant of love and fidelity that reflects the very love of Christ for His Church. In the Sacrament of Matrimony, husband and wife are joined by God Himself and are called to walk together in faith, hope, and love. Through the joys and challenges of daily life, Catholic marriage becomes a living witness of God's grace at work.

Here at the Cathedral of the Annunciation, we have the joy of celebrating two incredible milestones in the lives of our parishioners. José Luis and Margaret Huante recently celebrated 50 years of marriage, and Alex and Mariela Bianchi celebrated 55 years of marriage. Their lifelong love, faithfulness, and perseverance are a true inspiration for all of us and a reminder that God's grace sustains and blesses every couple who entrusts their marriage to Him.

We also wish to lovingly encourage those who may be only civilly married to take the next step and enter fully into the grace of the Sacrament of Matrimony. By having their marriage blessed in the Church through a community wedding, couples receive the fullness of God's sacramental grace, strengthening their union and making their family life even more fruitful in Christ.

If you or someone you know is civilly married, we warmly invite you to stop by the parish office to learn more about how to regularize your marriage in the Church. God desires to bless your love abundantly!

El matrimonio es una vocación hermosa, una alianza de amor y fidelidad que refleja el mismo amor de Cristo por su Iglesia. En el Sacramento del Matrimonio, el esposo y la esposa son unidos por Dios y son llamados a caminar juntos en la fe, la esperanza y el amor. A través de las alegrías y desafíos de la vida diaria, el matrimonio católico se convierte en un testimonio vivo de la gracia de Dios en acción.

Aquí en la Catedral de la Anunciación, tenemos la alegría de celebrar dos hitos increíbles en la vida de nuestros feligreses. José Luis y Margaret Huante celebraron recientemente 50 años de matrimonio, y Alex y Mariela Bianchi celebraron 55 años de matrimonio. Su amor de toda una vida, su fidelidad y perseverancia son una verdadera inspiración para todos nosotros y un recordatorio de que la gracia de Dios sostiene y bendice a cada pareja que confía su matrimonio a Él.

También deseamos animar a quienes están solamente casados al civil a dar el siguiente paso y entrar plenamente en la gracia del Sacramento del Matrimonio. Al recibir la bendición de su matrimonio en la Iglesia a través de una boda comunitaria, las parejas reciben la plenitud de la gracia sacramental de Dios, fortaleciendo su unión y haciendo que su vida familiar sea aún más fecunda en Cristo.

Si usted o alguien que conozca está casado al civil, los invitamos cordialmente a pasar por la oficina parroquial para aprender más sobre cómo regularizar su matrimonio en la Iglesia. ¡Dios desea bendecir su amor en abundancia!
