Joyful Sunday at Annunciation!

At our 9:00 AM Mass, Bishop Myron Cotta will celebrate the Jubilee of Catechists. This Jubilee, established by the Catholic Church in 2025, is a special celebration to honor and strengthen those called to hand on the faith. Catechists from across our diocese will gather for a time of spiritual renewal, formation, and gratitude for their ministry. Let us keep our dedicated catechists in our prayers, asking the Holy Spirit to bless their witness and service.

This Sunday is also historic for the Church as we rejoice in the canonization of two young saints in Rome: Carlo Acutis and Pier Giorgio Frassati.

Saint Carlo Acutis was a teenager who fell in love with the Eucharist and wanted the whole world to share in that love. Using his gift for technology, he created a website cataloging Eucharistic miracles and Marian apparitions. The Church has officially recognized two miracles attributed to his intercession: the sudden healing of a Brazilian boy with a pancreatic malformation in 2013, and the recovery of a Costa Rican woman from a severe head injury after a bicycle accident in 2022. These miraculous healings opened the way for his canonization, making him the first millennial saint.

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, known as the “Man of the Beatitudes,” was a joyful and energetic young layman who dedicated his life to serving the poor and living his faith boldly. Though born into a privileged family, he chose a life of charity and prayer, volunteering with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and Catholic Action. A passionate mountaineer, he often used his climbs to reflect and draw closer to God. Saint John Paul II beatified him in 1990, praising him for his purity of heart and service to those in need. His canonization was made possible after two miracles were officially recognized. The first, the healing of Domenico Sellan who suffered from spinal tuberculosis and was near death. The second healing of Seminarian Juan Gutierrez who had a torn Achilles tendon. These two authenticated miracles fulfilled the Church’s requirement for canonization, affirming Pier Giorgio Frassati’s sanctity.

This Sunday, let us rejoice in the witness of these new saints and give thanks for the gift of our catechists, who help form disciples of Christ in every generation.

¡Domingo alegre en la Anunciación!

En nuestra Misa de las 9:00 AM, el Obispo Myron Cotta celebrará el Jubileo de Catequistas. Este Jubileo, establecido por la Iglesia Católica en 2025, es una celebración especial para honrar y fortalecer a quienes han sido llamados a transmitir la fe. Catequistas de toda nuestra diócesis se reunirán para un tiempo de renovación espiritual, formación y gratitud por su ministerio. Mantengamos a nuestros catequistas en la oración, pidiendo al Espíritu Santo que bendiga su testimonio y servicio.

Este domingo también es histórico para la Iglesia, ya que nos unimos a la alegría de la canonización de dos jóvenes santos en Roma: Carlo Acutis y Pier Giorgio Frassati.

San Carlo Acutis fue un adolescente que se enamoró profundamente de la Eucaristía y deseaba que el mundo entero compartiera ese amor. Con su talento para la tecnología, creó un sitio web en el que recopiló milagros eucarísticos y apariciones marianas. La Iglesia ha reconocido oficialmente dos milagros atribuidos a su intercesión: la curación repentina de un niño brasileño con una malformación pancreática en 2013, y la recuperación de una joven costarricense tras una grave lesión en la cabeza a causa de un accidente en bicicleta en 2022. Estas curaciones milagrosas abrieron el camino para su canonización, convirtiéndolo en el primer santo millennial.

San Pier Giorgio Frassati, conocido como el “Hombre de las Bienaventuranzas”, fue un joven laico alegre y enérgico que dedicó su vida a servir a los pobres y a vivir su fe con valentía. Aunque nació en una familia acomodada, eligió una vida de caridad y oración, colaborando con la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl y con la Acción Católica. Apasionado del alpinismo, aprovechaba sus ascensos para reflexionar y acercarse más a Dios. San Juan Pablo II lo beatificó en 1990, alabando su pureza de corazón y su servicio constante a los necesitados. Su canonización fue posible después del reconocimiento oficial de dos milagros: el primero, la curación de Domenico Sellan, quien sufría de tuberculosis espinal y estaba al borde de la muerte; y el segundo, la curación del seminarista Juan Gutiérrez, quien tenía un tendón de Aquiles roto. Estos dos milagros autenticados cumplieron el requisito de la Iglesia para la canonización, confirmando la santidad de Pier Giorgio Frassati.

Este domingo, alegrémonos con el testimonio de estos nuevos santos y demos gracias por el don de nuestros catequistas, quienes ayudan a formar discípulos de Cristo en cada generación.
